

Learning Objective #3 – Students will demonstrate their understanding of the Early Middle Ages/Carolingian rule by choosing 4 aspects of this rule that laid the groundwork for the development of modern Europe and develop an essay justifying their choices using APA format, developing a Wiki to as a presentation format for their work and posting the Word document to their blog for class review and comment, based on a rubric with 80% accuracy.

Criteria	Exemplary	Advanced	Developing	Beginning	POSSIBLE POINTS	SCORE
Descriptive analysis of assessment processes and supporting technology tools. Students will be required to establish a Wiki to present their analysis and post the Wiki to their Word Press blog site.	Student will establish their Wiki Account and post their short essays to their Word Press site with no assistance.	Student will establish their Wiki Account and post their short essays to their Word Press site with minimal assistance.	Student will establish their Wiki Account and post their short essays to their Word Press site with a moderate amount of assistance.	Students with establish their Wiki Account and post their short essays to their Word Press site with a significant amount of assistance.	10
Writing and Presentation Students will display their understanding of Early Middle Ages Carolingian Rule by identifying and defending four aspects that laid the ground for Modern Europe.	Student has demonstrated a command of the historical material in defending their choice of four main aspects that contributed to the development of modern Europe. The essays are concisely worded and the total number of pages does not exceed 4 pages (one for each aspect) and uses APA format with no typos or grammatical errors. Uses more than 2 outside historical references.	Student has demonstrated a good understanding of the historical material in defending their choice four main aspects that contributed to the development of modern Europe. The essays are well written and may total number of pages does not exceed 4 -5 pages and uses APA format with minimal typos or grammatical errors. Uses 2 outside historical references.	Student has demonstrated a satisfactory understanding of the historical material in defending their choice four main aspects that contributed to the development of modern Europe. The essays are satisfactorily written and the total number of pages does not exceed 5-6 pages and uses APA format with only some typos or grammatical errors. Uses 1-2 historical references.	Student has demonstrated an adequate understanding of the historical material in defending their choice four main aspects that contributed to the development of modern Europe. The essays are adequately written using APA format with significant numbers of typos or grammatical errors. Uses 0-1 outside historical references.	40
Percentage earned =				Total points

Learning Objective #3 – Students will demonstrate their understanding of the Early Middle Ages/Carolingian rule by choosing 4 aspects of this rule that laid the groundwork for the development of modern Europe and develop an essay justifying their choices using APA format, developing a Wiki to as a presentation format for their work and posting the Word document to their blog for class review and comment, based on a rubric with 80% accuracy.

Criteria	Exemplary	Advanced	Developing	Beginning	POSSIBLE POINTS	SCORE
Range: 50-45=A;44-40 =B; 39-35=C, 34-29 = D; 28-0=F

DRAFT